200 GAMES

Always considered a tough player to handle out wide, thanks to his raw power and impressive burst of speed, Anthony Watmough has also matured into one of the game's most consistent forwards since debuting back in 2003. The 28-year-old was again a key player in Manly's Premiership success in 2011, playing his 200th career first-grade game and earning a recall to the NSW and Australian squads.
